Proclamation of the Governor of Kentucky.

The new Executive of Kentucky has issued a noble proclamation to the citizens of that State, which is conceived in the genuine spirit of Chav, METCALFE, SHELDY, and other worthies of that brave Comwealth. There is no equivocation or Halting about Governor Rosmson. He is Kentucky is responding to the call; and soon her soil will swarm with the legions of her sister States in the Northwest. She has traitors in her borders, but they will speedily be crushed.

Honurein.-We saw a hearse passing through our streets yesterday with no less than seven trunks lying in it. They were only traveling trunks however.

The public must be patient with the Post-office, and they will be when they remember that there are some seconty-first mail bags to distribute.

See advertisement of Mr. Donnas, in another column. Parents wishing to send their children to school, could not do better than to trust them to the guardianship of this gentleman.

Mr. W. C. Contain has placed us under new obligations by copies of late papers.

THEATHE. -- For the first time in several months " Pizzarro" was performed Monday evening, and drew together decidedly a large and onthusiastic assemblage. The play was placed upon the stage in a style that would have reflected credit upon establishments of greater pretensions. The music was rendered in a very effective manner. Mr. DUFFIELD as the "High Priest." Mr. HAMILTON was an excellent representation of "Rolla." The "Two Bonnycastles" was the afterpiece, and Hanny Evenner kept the house in a continual roar. To-night " Daughter of the Regiment," and BROUGHAM's great play of "The Irish Emigrant," and a song by DEFFIELD.

In New York, Thursday, an explosion coursed in Centre street, which, though very natural, was looked upon by the wondering crowd as little less than a miracle. It happened in this manner:— Michael Travers was passing along the street, and stopped to strike a light for the purpose of lighting a cigar. In drawing the match across the head of a barrel, the latter exploded with a lond report, causing the utmost terror among the inhabitants of the neighborhood.— The head of the barrel was blown some distance, coming in contact with the arm and Stripes thrown to the breeze. It is of Mr. Travers, and injuring it so severely that he had to be conveyed to the hospital. The barrel had contained benzine, but, having been mostly emplied, was FORTHERS MONROE, Aug. 20.—The fol-lowing prisoners have arrived here:—G, of the sun had generated gas, which had Conr Cass on the War.

It has been known that General Case has felt much interest in the progress of the war, and has very heartily espoused the cause of the Government. He has, however, made no public expression of his sentiments until recently. On the 14th inst., at Hillsdale, Michigan, he made a brief speech, from which we quote:

Patriotism and policy equally dictate that our force should be such as to enable us to act with vigor and efficiency against our enemies and reduce them to unconditional submission to the laws. Foos will then be converted into citizens by the restoration everywhere of the consti-tution to its legitimate authority as it came from the hands of the framers. And shall this appeal be unheeded? A long life has taught me to know my countrymen better than to fear they will not answer to the calls made upon them. All, indeed, cannot repair to the field, nor is it necessary they should do so. It is a small portion only of the citizens able to bear arms who are required to become temporary soldiers. But we can all be useful in this labor of patriotism; those who go, by the discharge of their military duties, and those who remain by words and works of encouragement testi fying the public feeling and gratitude, and by contributions for the health and com-fort of our citizen soldiers, and not less effectually by upholding the justice of our cause and by carefully avoiding every-thing which would have a tendency to impede the efforts of the Government or o check the patriotic ardor of the people Our business now is with the present and the future. The differences of the past if not forgotten, should be adjourned till the standard of the Union again floats, anopposed from Maine to Texas, and to the Pacific Ocean.

came upon Capt. Atkisson at one time, but the entire rebel force was there and assisted in the fight. Capt, Atkinson had the advantage of a stockade, but the rebls burnt a row of hay stacks within twenty or thirty steps of the fortifications, and the heat was so intense that some of the men's clothes caught fire .and had not eaten for twenty-four hours. They had resolved not to surrender, and they did not. Their daring and bravery are not surpassed in history. Fight Near Green River.

Col. John W. Foster telegraphed Gov. Morton from Madisonville, Hopkins county, Ky., under date of the 25th instant, to the effect that he left Henderson on Sunday morning, sending Cavalry and Artillery by land and Infantry by Green River to Ashbysburg to drive Johnson out of Madisonville. At balf-past nine o'clock on Monday morning the Cavalry was fired upon by the guerrillas two miles from town in ambush. After falling back the Cavalry dismounted and drove them back a mile through the thick brush and hills, when they waited for the Infantry. When it came up in the afternoon two companies were deployed and drove them back, after a sharp engage-ment, when the rebels fled. Five rebels are reported killed, the number of wounded unknown. Seventeen prisoners were taken. Sergeant Blackman of the 4th Indiana Cavalry, was wounded and has since died. Farrier Elijah Scroggin, 4th Indiana Cavalry, was severely wounded James F. Thurman, 4th Indiana Cavalry, had a log broken, and three of the Kentucky Cavalry are wounded. A number of horses and arms were captured. Col. Foster reports that they have no camp equipage and are subsisting on the coun-Robel reinforcements are said to be advancing from Clarksville. According to these letters, the plan of the great Italian leader is not to strike a blow at Rome, a deed which, however successful, would still leave Italy shorn from her finest provinces, but to attack Austria, which is the only foe of his country, and her only op-presser. In consequence, he is said to have had an understanding with Kossuth, who is going to move uson. Hungary at the head of an army of Serbs and Montenegrins, whilst be (Garibaldi) will direct one of his corps upon some of the Austrian provinces on the border of the Adriatic, and the other in some other places still unknown. The object of that trable expedition is to connect the cause of Italy, Hungary, and the Danubian provinces into a great demonstration against Austria, to revolutionize all the disantmake it so busy at home that it will have no strength left to defend Venetia, which will then fall into Garibaldi's hands.
